TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be we'l to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air brake.

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY,

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THANKSGIVING PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency, the Governor of North Carolina.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, October 22d, 1873.

WHEREAS, The people of North Carolina have been abundantly blessed during the past year, and the earth hath yielded bounteously of all the products of its soil so that the garners of the husbandman are filled to overflowing; and the industrious mechanic has realized a rich reward for his labor, and every class of our population prospered in all laudable enterprises; and WHEREAS, above all, fraternal feelings and good will have in a great measure been restored in our midst, and no plague, pestilence or famine, has visited our State: Now, therefore, as it becomes us, a grateful people, to render thanks to Almighty God for these and numberless other blessings showered upon us in His great mercy, I, Tod R. Caldwell, Governor of North Carolina, in obedience to law and in conformity with an honored precedent, do appoint and set apart

Thursday, November 27th, 1873,

as a day of public Thanksgiving throughout the State; and I do earnestly invite the clergy of every denomination to open their respective houses of worship on said day, and to exhort their congregations to humble themselves before the throne of the ever living God, and render unto Him praises which are justly due, invoking for themselves, their State and their whole country, His guidance and protection throughout all time to come.

"O come, let us sing unto the Lord, let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation."

"Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms."

Done at the city of Raleigh, on this the 22d day of October, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and in the ninety-eighth year of American Independence.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Mr. E. B. SANDERS, late of Onslow county, who has been regularly employed upon the POST for the past two months, is announced as its Associate Editor. Mr. Sanders is too well known in this portion of the State to require any further notice, but to our friends at a distance we beg to state that he is a graduate of Chapel Hill, and an Attorney of promise. He served in the Confederate army during the late war, and accepting the situation, espoused the election of Gen. Grant. He is, therefore, in full accord with the Editor of the POST in political opinions, and we commend him to the favorable consideration of our cotemporaries.

Strictures on the President.

It is the wild belief of many of the bucolic press that the President ought to declare war against Spain. This cry is chorused by such strophes as "Oh, for an hour of Jackson!" And because we are not already blockading Cuban ports, or bombarding and burning Cuban cities, the administration is censured as indifferent to national honor. Has the information ever been conveyed to these people that Congress alone can declare war? And supposing they know this much, would they have our government to assume the offensive, whenever an irresponsible newspaper correspondent declares a state of things to exist, of which the truth is not officially known? It seems generally conceded that much of the news from Madrid in relation to the peril of Minister Sickles is sensational and untrue; and while a powerful sentiment of hostility against the United States, in Spain, is admitted, yet Castellar is not the fool or barbarian that many assume him to be.

The capture of the Virginius, and the murder of her prisoners, is now being investigated by the State Department. The Spanish authorities are lending all the assistance in their power to furnish complete information, and by the time Congress meets the President will doubtless be able to lay before it all the facts in the tragedy, and be prepared to enforce whatever action it may deem necessary.

At present all is conjecture. The public mind has become greatly excited by a deed whose atrocity carries us back to the dark ages. The execution of the crew of the Virginius is unsanctioned by the voice of any enlightened country, even though Spain may have law to sustain her action. But as the facts upon which the law rests are unknown, so until we are in possession of those facts, we should not condemn the President for what he does or does not do.

Whether the Virginius was entitled to the protection of our flag is debated. The Spanish authorities deny that she was an American ship. But should it be proven that she was an American ship, and satisfaction refused, or security not guaranteed, then the vengeance of the United States will be as a consuming fire, else we mistake both Congress and the President.

LEGISLATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

[Condensed from the Raleigh News.]

SIXTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

SENATE.

SATURDAY, Nov. 22.

Senate met at 12 o'clock, the Lieut. Governor in the chair.

The consideration of Mr. Merrimon's bill in regard to the Public Treasurer being the special order for 12 o'clock, it was taken up.

Mr. Norwood offered a resolution as a substitute for the bill, which was in substance, to strike out after the enacting clause that the bill should read: In the judgment of the General Assembly there is no injunction on the Public Treasurer, and this body will sustain him in the payment of warrants upon the Treasury, &c.

Mr. Flemming offered an amendment to the bill, which read in substance as follows: Strike out the enacting clause, so that it will read, It shall be the duty of the State Treasurer to pay out all sums in accordance with the provisions of chapter 64, section 78, of Battle's digest, without regard to order, and on his failure to pay out in conformity with this order, he shall be subject to impeachment for high crimes and misdemeanors.

The question recurred on Mr. Norwood's resolution, which was a substitute for the bill.

The Attorney General's opinion, which was sent for by Messrs. Cramer and Ellis, was handed in by Mr. Cramer, and read by the Clerk, as follows:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 22d, 1873.

To the Honorable the Senate of North Carolina:

Your Committee, Senators Jno. T. Cramer and J. W. Ellis, have just called on me and requested, in behalf of the Senate, an answer in writing, as to the question whether there is any restraint upon the Public Treasurer from paying out money from the treasury by reason of the suit of Alfred Self and others against him in the Federal Court.

In reply I beg leave to say, that no writ of injunction can be granted by any Judge of the United States in any case, without reasonable previous notice to the adverse party or his attorney, of the time and place of moving for the same; see Brightley's Digest, laws of the United States, vol. 1, page 256, title equity, sec. 3.

Upon an examination of the process served on the Public Treasurer, it appears that a bill was filed by Alfred Self, a citizen of the State of New York, in the Clerk's office for the Eastern District of North Carolina, praying for a subpœna, &c., and an injunction, special to the hearing and perpetual thereafter, &c.

The usual equity proceeding was issued the 13th of November, 1873, commanding the defendant to answer the bill and receive and abide the judgment, &c., of the Judge on pain of judgment by default being taken against him on or before the first Monday of January next. His Honor, Judge Bond, on the 10th of November, made an order that the case be set for hearing upon the motion for an injunction on Wednesday of the Circuit Court to be held at Raleigh, provided a copy of this order be served on the defendant within six days from the date of the order. This was simply an order that he would hear and consider the application for an injunction on the 3d day of the term, provided the notice was given, and at that time grant the injunction, or at that time refuse the injunction.

He certainly did not grant the writ of injunction at the time he made the foregoing order. Nor could he have done so, because no notice had been given to the defendant; and further, the idea of an injunction is excluded by fixing the day when he would decide to grant or deny the writ.

If the complainant, Alfred Self, had desired a restraining order before the hearing of a motion for an injunction, it was competent for him to apply for it, and His Honor might, in a proper case, if there had appeared to be danger of irreparable injury from delay, have granted an order restraining the Public Treasurer until the decision upon the motion for an injunction. So easy was it for the complainant to have obtained such restraining order, that he could, in the discretion of the Judge upon a proper case, have had it without security. (See act of Congress, approved June 1st, 1872, chap. 255, sec. 7, Statutes at Large, 2nd session of 42nd Congress.) Yet having a right upon a proper case to this order he has not obtained it. No such order has been made that I am aware of. It may be urged that the prayer for a writ of injunction in the bill, and the service of a copy of the bill and the subpœna, together with the order setting the motion for an injunction for hearing on a certain day, operate as an injunction, or order of restraint. Not so.

If such restraint had been desired, the complainant had his remedy; his course was marked out by the statute. And when a party has a remedy plainly prescribed by law, that is the one he must take.

I am of opinion that the acts of Congress above alluded to are decisive of the question, and therefore it is not necessary to cite further authority to sustain this view.

My opinion is that these suits do not now constitute any legal impediment to prevent the Treasurer from paying out money from the Treasury on proper warrants from the Auditor.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your ob't serv't,
T. L. HARGROVE, Att'y Gen'l.

Mr. Love called the previous question, which, being sustained, the ayes were called, and the bill passed its second reading by the following vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Cramer, Cunningham, Dunham, Ellis of Columbus, Horton, Love, Mabson, McCabe, McCauley, Merrimon, Miller, Morehead of Guilford, Morehead of Rockingham, Murphy, Murray, Nicholson, Norwood, Price, Scott, Stafford, Todd, and Waring.

Nays—Messrs. Eppes, Flemming, Gudger, Harriss, Hill, Holloman, Hyman, King, Long, McCotter, Seymour, Smith, Walker and Welch.

By Mr. Norwood: A bill to amend section 13 of Battle's Revisal. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. Waring: A bill to amend chapter 52, section 10, of Battle's Revisal. Referred to Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. Nicholson: A bill to establish a turnpike road from the town of Statesville, in Iredell county, to the Virginia line. Referred to the Committee on Internal Improvements.

On motion, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

The House was called to order at 11:30 a. m., Mr. Speaker Robinson in the chair.

By Mr. Waugh: A resolution to require a report from the State Geologist. Calendar.

By Mr. Houston: A resolution of instruction to the Attorney General to furnish to the House his opinion whether or not the Self injunction prevented the Treasurer from paying out money according to law. Calendar.

By Mr. Pasehall: A resolution in favor of the members of the General Assembly who are Justices of the Peace. Calendar.

By Mr. Reid, of Mecklenburg: A resolution of instruction to the Judiciary Committee in regard to insurance companies. Calendar.

By Mr. Hanner: A bill to amend chapter 121, section 13, of Battle's Revisal. Referred.

By Mr. Gorman: A bill to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh in reference to the opening of new streets. Referred.

By Mr. Blythe: A bill to allow widows to sell real estate. Referred.

By Mr. Cobb: A bill to extend the time of Sheriffs and Tax Collectors to settle with the County Treasurers. Referred. (Extends the time to the second Monday in February.)

By Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg: A bill to amend the act to incorporate the Trustees of Davidson College. Referred.

By Mr. Dudley: A bill to repeal chapter 19, private law: of 1870-'71. Referred.

By Mr. Gorman: A bill in reference to the militia of the State. Referred.

By Mr. Hughes: A bill to create a mechanics and laborer's lien law. Referred.

By Mr. Wiley: A bill to prevent the selling of articles by the offer of prizes or gifts. Referred.

The Chair then announced the Special Order, which was the resolutions condemning the Congressional salary increase Act, commonly known as the "back grab acts."

Mr. Marler moved to amend Mr. McGehee's resolutions by inserting words which made the condemnation apply to President Grant for signing the bill.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting the report of the Board of Commissioners in regard to the Western Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, the resolution asking information of the Treasurer in relation to the taxes of Wayne county of 1870, was taking up and passed its several readings.

On motion of Mr. Jones of Caldwell, the resolution separating the white and colored galleries of the Hall of the House was taken up and, after some debate, referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

In response to the resolution adopted by the House, the Attorney General sent in the following opinion in regard to the effect of the Self injunctions upon the power of the State Treasurer to pay out money according to law:

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 22, 1873.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of N. C.:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the following resolution:

"Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the Attorney General be requested to furnish to the House during its session of to-day, his opinion as to whether the State Treasurer is restrained from paying money according to law by the proseedings instituted by Self and others against D.A. Jenkins, State Treasurer."

The time within which you request my answer is so short, that I beg leave respectfully to give only my conclusion on the question without the resolusions therefor.

My opinion is, that the suit inistituted by Self and others against the Public Treasurer do not now constitute any legal impediment to prevent the Treasurer from paying out money from the Treasury on proper warrent.

I have the honor to be,
Very respectfully,
Your obedient serv't,
T. L. HARGROVE,
Atto. Gen'l.

An invitation was read from the authorities of the Fair of the Carolinas inviting the House to attend on the 26th inst.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, offered a resolution returning thanks for the same, which was adopted, and the House adjourned until Monday morning at 11:30 o'clock.

Resolutions

Concerning Bridges over Wilmington and Weldon Railroad in the City of Wilmington, N. C.

WHEREAS, THE "CUT" MADE BY the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company in the construction of their Railroad, where the same crosses or intersects the streets in the city greatly impedes the passage of travellers and tends to the manifest injury of the citizens.

AND WHEREAS, The Board of Aldermen are advised that it is the duty of the said Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company to erect and maintain bridges across such cuts where the same cross or intersect the streets in the city, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN, That in their opinion the public necessity demands the erection of bridges at the following points where the said Railroad intersects the following streets to wit: Second Street, Third Street, Fifth Street, Sixth Street, Seventh Street and MacRae Street.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the width of the bridges over said Railroad cut or excavation on Second Street should be thirty feet wide, on Third Street forty feet wide; on Fifth Street, forty feet wide, on Sixth Street Twenty-five feet wide, on Seventh Street, twenty feet wide, on MacRae Street twenty feet wide.

RESOLVED, That in the opinion of this Board, the Bridge known as Boney Bridge, where the Railroad crosses Fourth Street, is so narrow as to impede the passage of travellers on the same, and that a bridge of fifty feet wide would be necessary to accommodate the public at that point,

RESOLVED, That the Mayor cause a copy of these Resolutions to be served upon the President or Managing Agent of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad Company, and that he direct the officer serving the notice to return a copy thereof, with the manner of service, to the office of the Clerk and Treasurer of the City.

The above Preamble and Resolutions were passed by the Board of Aldermen at their meeting November 21st, 1873.

SHERIFF BLACK, who is ever alive to the wants of this county, returned last night from Raleigh with a bill which yesterday became a law, postponing the sale of property for taxes in this country till February. This bill, at first, met with considerable opposition, which, however, yielded to the facts and figures which Mr. Black carried with him, and it is probable that now, such a relief is general in the State, owing the necessities of the times.

OWING to the late panic we will sell until January 1st, our entire stock at 25 per cent. less than New York cost.

THE TOWN CRIER.

— Gold is 109⅜.

— Warm and sunny.

— Get your turkey ready.

— Bishop Atkinson is in the city today.

— And the addition to the National goes on.

— The market is unusually attractive, probably owing to the near by feast day.

— We hope everybody reads George McDonald's books—they're ennobling, purifying—everything that's good.

— The foliage through the pine woods is still luxuriantly beautiful—not seeming to have thought of Winter or frosty times.

— From the thronged streets we conclude the ladies are improving this golden opportunity—of "Summer time"—doing up the Winter's shopping.

CHRISTENED.

Bessie Eleanor—Servoss.

And so the little white darling,
The pure one, the free one from sin,
By the dear Father just given,
Has been again given to Him.

The dear little Lamb from the Lord's fold,
With Heaven still folding her 'round.
Has, through the Church's sweetest service
To the Son and the Father been bound.

Wee angel, wee darling, wee daughter,
May the words by God's servant to-day
Said over thine unconscious breathing,
Be a light and a guide through life's way.

May you live little darling forever,
In the smiles and the sunshine of love,
And bear, as now, baby, through all time,
The seal of Eternity—Love.

SCOTT.

THERE are four vessels lying at Smithville, bound up the river.

VOLUNTEERS for Cuba will be enlisted at Hilton on Thursday next. The pay is $70 a month, and $500 bounty, provided the same is taken in shots for hogs, chickens, turkeys, and ducks, which will be put up for the best shots. The match is open to everybody.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to meet this morning with Mr. H. M. Clark, Agent of the Southern Express Company at Augusta. Mr. Clark is an affable and courteous gentleman, and is well calculated to make a host of friends wherever he goes.

MARINE DISASTER.—Captain Carter, of the Br. schooner St. Pierre, from Cardenas for this port, reports that he experienced heavy weather in the Gulf Stream, about sixty miles South of Frying Pan Shoals, on the night of the 16th instant. The mainboom, fore-gaff, mainsail, and jib, was carried away. Seaman William Feltham, of St. John's, New Brunswick, was dashed against the railing, mashing his chest very severely.

THE ladies of the First Presbyterian Church will give an entertainment at the hall of the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night next, at 7 o'clock. Supper will be provided for visitors at panic prices, and none need keep away through fear of raffles, etc., as nothing of the kind will in the least way be tolerated by the managers. It is the intention of the ladies to inaugurate a series of monthly entertainments, in order to comfortably prepare a parsonage for their pastor. All who wish to enjoy a pleasant evening, and get a good supper, are advised to go.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Opera House was well filled last night to witness Burdell & MacDonough's Black Crook. The performance was very creditable and much of it, really enjoyable. The dancing was good, and was heartily applauded. Mrs Benson exhibited wonderful activity in her clog dance, and was much admired. M'lle Eugenie Lupo is very fine in her acts also. Miss Alice Seidler gives us some very charming songs, and Salome Duffield was good as Stalacta. Her singing was also applauded. Baby Benson is certainly a prodigy, and the comicalities of the Hernandez troupe were, as usual, irresistible. The Peace Jubilee must be seen to be appreciated, and Young America is a host in himself. The orchestra music was good, and the picolo solo by Chas. H. Freeman deserves especial mention. The performances are all good, and it is very comfortable to hear good music again in our orchestra.

We anticipate a full house to-night, as the entertainment really deserves patronage.

Lew Wallace's novel, "The Fair God," is pronounced by the London Athenæum one of the greatest historical romances ever written, and it is an impressive fact in this connection that the Athenæum never gushes.

An octogenarian spinister is among the latest batch of English converts to Mormonism, and is on her way to Utah, in the comfortable faith that she will be "sealed" to some respectable elder immediately upon her arrival.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— One hundred and fifty converts were baptized in one day at Lynchburg, Virginia.

— The New York Herald declared war against Spain about its correspondents, and now wants Uncle Sam to become an ally.

— John Morrissey is now the unchallenged leader of the New York Democracy, and is likely to remain so until "Boss" Tweed has served out his term in Sing Sing.

— M. Rubellis, an artist, recently dined alone in one of the principal restaurants of Paris at a table on which had been placed covers for 13 persons. He is the only survivor of a party of 13 literary men and artists who arranged 20 years ago that its surviving members should dine once a year, and that the places of the dead should be conspicuously vacant. Among the members were Alfred de Musset, The aphile Gautier and Count de Flehac.

— The Protestant Church has never had so fair a prospect before as it has now in the Ottoman Empire. "The results of forty years of labor, of great and good men, living and dead, are now beginning to show themselves," writes a foreign correspondent of the Observer. "My observations in foreign countries force this conviction upon me, that if the munificence and faith of the Christian Church are equal to her opportunities, the whole world lies a conquest at her feet."

— The Richmond Enquirer says: "Our young Richmond journalists who are off for Cuba know a great deal about naval affairs. One of them used to be part owner of a canal-boat, another has made a voyage around the world, the third once edited the marine column of a newspaper, and all can shiver top-lights and splice main-braces when occasion requires." Yes, but they are not off yet—the Worcester left them shivering in the cold at Norfolk.

By the President of the United States of America.

The approaching close of another year brings with it the occasion for renewed thanksgiving and acknowledgment to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe for the unnumbered mercies which He has bestowed upon us.

Abundant harvests have been among the rewards of industry. With local exceptions health has been among the many blessings enjoyed. Tranquility at home and peace with other nations have prevailed. Frugal industry is regaining its merited recognition and its merited rewards.

Gradually, but, under the providence of God, surely, as we trust, the nation is recovering from the lingering results of a dreadful civil strife.

For these and all the other mercies vouchsafed, it becomes us as a people to return heartfelt and grateful acknowledgments, and with our thanksgiving for blessings we may unite prayers for the cessation of local and temporary sufferings.

I, therefore, recommend that on Thursday, the twenty-seventh day of November next, the people meet in their respective places of worship, to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for His bounties and His protection, and to offer to Him prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington this 14th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, and [L.S.] of the independence of the United States the ninety-seventh.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, November 25.

The first intimation yesterday of a probable change of the administration in Spain, with Serrano as Dictator, came through British official sources. To-day the story is varied in another quarter, namely, that the Castellar government is to be overthrown by a combination of ruling Spaniards. The plan is said to include the establishment of Marshal Serrano as Regent for the young Duke Alfonso.

Our government has no official advices on the subject, nor does it consider these reports trustworthy.

The President has appointed E. R. Bagwell, of Va., a Commissioner substitute to the Centennial Commissioner.

Secretary Robeson left Washington last night for Philadelphia on business connected with fitting out of vessels.—It is said by Bureau officers at the navy dock that, so far from orders being issued for the suspension of such work, they are engaged in hurrying the preparations to completion.

The President has seized the naturalization treaty between the United States and Ecuador.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, November 25.

It has transpired that on Saturday last Tweed transferred a large amount of real estate to various parties.

A Mrs. Schroot appeared at police headquarters yesterday and stated that her husband, who had in his possession $12,000 and her little daughter, aged 12 years disappeared from a Boston boat at the wharf here, Friday last and she believes that they had been murdered. The party had just arrived from Rotterdam and were going to Boston.

A large number of firms, carried down by the force of the late panic, have perfected arrangements with their creditors, and are getting in shape to announce the resumption of business.

It is said the detectives have given reliable information in relation to a movement to throw a large quantity of forged United States bonds on the market, and that important arrests may be made.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the

LATEST NEWS,

up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

RELIABLE INTELLIGENCE,

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city.

Politically the POST is

UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicissitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or
COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.
